

A Candle for You

*As I walk through my dreams of tomorrow
I light a candle for you
As I chase the moonbeams of wonder
I light a candle for you*

*A candle to glow in the window
That faces your house from mine
A candle with a flame that may gutter
Yet will ever continue to shine*

*As I hope for justice and mercy
I light a candle for you
As I cry for freedom and kindness
I light a candle for you*

*A candle to glow in the window
That faces your house from mine
A candle with a flame that may gutter
Yet will ever continue to shine*

*As I pray for peace the world over
I light a candle for you
As I kneel to an omnipotent power
I light a candle for you*

*A candle to glow in the window
That faces your house from mine
A candle with a flame that may gutter
Yet will ever continue to shine*

*A candle of love and remembrance
A candle of promise and trust
A candle of faith and of courage
A candle of light for the just*

*A candle I pray burns in your heart
A candle as bright as in mine
A candle that burns on forever
A candle that burns for all time*
