

Wings

*I wish you love,
I wish you joy,
I wish you many things
But more than that, and above all else,
I wish you wings*

*I wish you dreams,
I wish you hope,
I wish you golden rings
But most of all, in every way,
I wish you wings*

*I wish you peace,
I wish you wealth,
I wish you strolls with kings
But even then, should all else fail,
I wish you wings*

*For wings are what you need
To slip the madding crowds
To join the hosts of angels
Beyond these earthly clouds*
