

An Open Heart

An open heart requires very little proof of God. A child's smile, a butterfly or a sunset will suffice.

God created man. Then He rolled the dice and gave man free will. What is free will, by definition, but an imperfection, a foothold for Satan?

Man, with the imperfection of free will, has been ever since creating (read, constructing,) gods of every description, from all those inscribed in ancient and modern mythology, up to and including the crass and material gods of modern society --- financial success, public opinion, stardom and so on and on.

Therein lies the confusion between God and gods.

A man who chooses to worship a god of his own making is, despite his imperfections, a perfect fool. His god can, will and does change at the whim of that man's free will. Such a man faces indeed an empty and hopeless eternity.

When we are born, God lives in us. He gives each and every one of us a piece of Himself for our hope and guidance (conscience) while we are its custodians. Our salvation lies in our very death when God reclaims and takes back to His bosom that piece of Himself.
